

Autistic savant, 15, provides narration in dazzling novel

1. "Woodstock General Hospital — Tradition of Caring 1895-2007"

Irene Crawford-Siano

This book provides a rare inside look at the growth of Woodstock's community hospital since its founding in 1895.

2. "The Secret"

Rhonda Byrne

The Secret contains wisdom from modern-day teachers on how to achieve health, wealth and happiness.

3. "Eat, Pray, Love: One woman's search for everything"

Elizabeth Gilbert

In her fabulous travel memoir, Gilbert takes the reader on two epic journeys — one through Italy, India and Indonesia and the other deep inside her intense psyche.

4. "Look at Me!"

Robert Munsch

In Munsch's latest hilarious story, Madison just wants one rose painted on her cheek, but soon realizes it isn't a simple flower at all!

5. "Henry and Harriet"

A hopeful story that validates the feelings of children when someone dies.

6. "Safe Haven"

Joyce Pettigrew

Joyce traces the history of Oxford County from the early 1830's to current times.

7. "Bone #7: Ghost Circles"

Jeff Smith

The latest in this Young Adult graphic novel series is an epic story about three "bone creatures" and their adventures in a valley peopled with an assortment of crazy and interesting characters.

8. "The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time"

Mark Haddon

Narrated by a 15 year-old autistic savant obsessed with Sherlock Holmes, this dazzling novel weaves together an old-fashioned mystery and a fascinating excursion into a mind incapable of processing emotions.

9. "Eclipse"

Stephenie Meyer

Readers captivated by "Twilight" and "New Moon" will eagerly devour "Eclipse", the third book in Stephenie Meyer's riveting vampire love saga.

10. "Duma Key"

Stephen King

The tenacity of love, the perils of creativity, the mysteries of memory and the nature of the supernatural. Stephen King gives us a novel as fascinating as it is gripping and terrifying.

Compiled by Merrifield Book Shop